BAD ACCIDENT

Boy Seriously Burned at His Home in Aberdeen

Lee, the five-year-old grandchild of John Huron, residing in the old Power house in Main street, Aberdeen, was fearfully burned yesterday morning, and it is feared will lose his eyesight.

The little fellow had gotten up out of bed in his night-gown and was playing with a dog. In frisking about, the light material caught fire from the grate and before assistance could be rendered—the grown folks being in another room—the little fellow was burned.

Lee is an exceptionally bright boy and a great favorite.

EVANGELIST WILLIAMS

Another Big Audience and Good Sermon at M. E. Church

Despite the storm and rain there were more than a hundred people heard Mr. Williams at the Methodist Church last night from the text found in Luke 2:7.

He said Isaiah prophesied 712 years before Christ came that He would be rejected of men, that Caesar's decree filled Bethlehem with people until there was no room in the inn for Mary, the mother of Jesus. Christ came to "open the blind eyes." Blindness, blackness and darkness are types of sin, and spiritual blindness is a greater calamity than physical loss of sight; would better sit on the corner and beg pennies from passers-by as a blind man, than to be in the darkness of sin.

Christ is the great shackles-breaker, the habit-breaker, the sin eradicator.

The Jews are God's chosen people and we cannot mistreat them without calling down the frown of God upon us. Yet the Jews are a people without a flag, without a Christ, without a Nation, and will continue so until they "make room for Christ." They are under the penalty of Christ's words, "Thy house is left unto the desolate" because they had no room for Jesus. That statement hangs over us today, unless we make room for Him.

Sin is behind the troubles, the heart-aches and breaks, behind the discord and confusion in Maysville. The trouble is the people have put the "whist" game in the parlor and pushed Christ to the bedroom; put the wine on the table and Christ upstairs; the Bible is closed and put back and the dance takes its place.

No room in the home for Christ—mothers and fathers with boys and girls on the road to ruin and those parents shutting Christ out of the home. He said there was room on the cross, in the grave, and in Heaven for Christ; on the cross he tasted death for all; from the grave he tunneled the way out for you and me; and in Heaven He is at the throne pleading for us all.

His appeal was strong. One young man was converted.

Mr. Muse sang with the usual effect. The choir in rendering great assistance under the efficient leadership of Mr. Harry Richardson.

Subject tonight, "Our Attorney."

Among the bills introduced in the Senate this week was one to place the names and statues of Henry Clay and John C. Breckinridge in the National Hall of Fame to represent Kentucky.
